Dear Real Estate Professional:

Welcome. In these pages you'll find the largest selection of real estate software available anywhere. Our mission is simple...your success in real estate. For 20 years now, we have offered you only the very best software, together with our legendary customer service, support, and an unconditional guarantee. That tradition continues.

We are the proud suppliers to tens of thousands of satisfied customers, including all of the major real estate franchises and thousands of independent agents and investors. We have clients in all 50 states, and currently 23 foreign countries. Please join them.

Every program in this catalog has been specifically chosen to save you time, money, and help you be more successful. Many programs are Z-LAW exclusives, available nowhere else.

Your time is valuable. That's why we've reviewed hundreds of software packages for you. No product gets into our catalog until it passes an exhaustive evaluation by our staff of real estate professionals. You'll see, we don't carry everything. That means you can order with confidence. Many are submitted, few are chosen.

You're protected since all our products come with our exclusive no risk 30 day money-back guarantee. And we're so certain our prices are the lowest, if you find any product advertised for less, we'll do our best to beat that price.

Ideal for brokers is our updated Policies and Procedures Manual. It's the cost effective way to protect yourself and your business in today's litigious society. And check out our list of Best-Sellers where you'll find innovative ways to increase your productivity and stand out from the competition.

Software isn't expensive. Being unproductive or unprofessional is. Agents who use computers in their business earn over $74,000 more per year than agents who rarely if ever use computers, according to a survey by the National Association of Realtors. And software is tax deductible if used for your business.

Why wait? Start saving time and money (and making more money) now. Try us with an order today. You'll be pleased with the results. We guarantee it.

Sincerely,

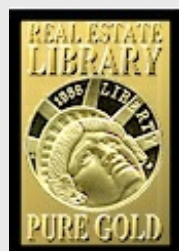

Gary L. Sherman, Esq.
President
